

Let's Get On With It

It's not 1978. If it were, the Week's Pavilion at the Westport/Weston Family Y would be brand-spankin' new.

It's a new century and 30 years later my Y has plans for a state-of-the-art facility at Camp Mahackeno.

After 30 tries, Mahackeno, owned by the Y, was the only choice.

I've said it often, I'll go wherever the Y is as I've done for 50 years.

Let's get on with it.
